GOVERNOR VETOES LOCAL SCHOOL BILL

House bill No. 309, which passed the house and senate and reduced the Portsmouth school board to six members, was today returned with the disapproval of the Governor. The bill will come up this afternoon on a question of sustaining or rejecting the veto.

Tucker of Manchester moved this morning to reconsider the vote on the 2.75 per cent beer bill which was killed on Tuesday. The house refused to reconsider by a vote of 189 to 131. In the senate there is up for action another bill in favor of Sunday sports. Much of the time was taken up in the house over bills pertaining to the city of Manchester. There appears to be much doubt today about final adjournment this week.

Germany is determined to keep to this program which history will regard in a very favorable conclusion of a preliminary peace."

"The right bank of the Rhine must not belong to Prussia," said Henry Franklin Bouillon, former Minister of Missions in a bitter speech in the

"The people of the world will accept the league as it has been prepared in Paris because they will realize that the promises the nations make to each other will act as an effective preventive of war."

Crocker, formerly city treasurer.

Forty-four men sent applications to the commission, but five of the applications were rejected because the requirements as to age, residence, and so forth, had not been met.

It is hoped those in "authority" will have the railing along the river road from the Huntress place to P. A. Staples' rebuilt this season. As it is now it is worse than none—an unsightly if not absolutely dangerous apology for what should be a good solid protection to pedestrians, where a misplaced might send one rolling down a steep bank to take a cold bath at high tide or land on a rocky beach in a hurry at low tide.

The roads have been in a wretched condition for the past ten days or more. Autos stuck and calls for help are almost daily occurrences in different parts of the town.

SAVE YOUR HAIR AND BEAUTIFY IT WITH 'DANDERINE'

Spend a few cents! Dandruff disappears and hair stops coming out!

Try this! Hair gets beautiful, wavy and thick in few moments.

If you care for heavy hair, that shines with beauty and is radiant with life, has an inexpressible softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine.

Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff; you cannot have nice, heavy healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scour robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and it hinders it from producing a fresh growth and itching of the scalp; the hair roots furnish, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast.

If your hair has been neglected and is thin, faded, dry, scraggy or too oily, get a small bottle of Danderine.

Danderine at any drug store or toilet counter for a few cents; apply a little as directed, and ten minutes after you will say this was the best investment you ever made.

We sincerely believe, regardless of everything else advertised, that if you desire soft, lustrous, beautiful hair and lots of it—no dandruff—no itching scalp and no more falling hair—you must use Danderine. Danderine, if eventually—why not now?

AN UNFORTUNATE MIX-UP IN NAMES

Through a similarity in names a number of newspapers have done a great injustice to a most efficient and conscientious naval officer. There were two Ensigns on duty at the Naval Prison at the yard—Edward E. Peterson and Daniel E. Peterson. Daniel E. got into trouble at the prison and was brought before a Court Martial board and given a sentence of two years and is now serving the sentence at Port Royal, S. C. The unfortunate thing about the case is the fact that many papers printed the name of the innocent Peterson who has a perfect record as an officer and is one of the most popular men on duty at this station.

THE HERALD HEARS

That Saco with its tropical climate in February will have to doff the shapewear to Newfields.

That Newfields has all records in the horticultural line rolled to the mast.

That Mrs. George A. Hall of that town raised full grown ripe tomatoes out doors.

That Saco with its Mayflowers is a near-champ now.

That it is hard to beat the Granite state for early records in matters pertaining to farming.

That a bird in the hand is worth two in the bush, but that hopes of a cold bottle with the cultured bird are slim and getting slimmer.

That golf will soon be in full swing and devotees of the game are anticipating a most successful season on the links.

That a fiver owner who has been running his fly on three cylinders for a month didn't know it until told by a garage man.

That he know he wasn't getting the real joy but thought it was due to poor gas.

That he thought the pounding of the engine was due to a loose bearing.

That there are many girls who are waiting for overseas boys to come home that they wouldn't be caught dead with before the war.

That a woman who invites a book agent into the house to tell him the neighborhood gossip is pretty mean.

That horsemen say the speed nags are rounding into great shape much earlier than usual, due to the good weather.

That only a married man can appreciate Bolshevikism.

That the Bolsheviks are using butter to lubricate freight cars with in Russia.

That the man over here is spending seventy cents a pound for the dairy product.

That there are many young ball players on the back lots these days.

For a good clean home paper have the Herald every day.

BOLSHEVISM IS SWEEPING EUROPE

(By Associated Press)
London, March 25—Dispatches from Madrid, Spain, received during the day indicate that the strike situation is very grave and that the Spanish government is doing everything possible to avert the growing menace.

Martini law has been declared throughout the country and the small concessions that have been made to the strikers indicate that the government intends to defy the disturbing element.

The situation has become more tense during the day and troops are patrolling the streets of Barcelona, in an effort to prevent the starting of any new trouble. The policy of the government will be to combat the uprising firmly, knowing that the majority of the populace are with the government.

London, March 25—Advice received here today state that situations in Egypt is very grave and that a crisis is expected to be reached at any hour. The whole of Egypt is in a state of violent revolt and more of the natives are joining the uprising hourly.

Military advisers state that the mobilization of troops that were scheduled to sail for England have been held up and sent to the aid of comrades to prevent their murder by the rebels.

Paris, March 25—The statement that the present situation in Hungary is the result of the division of the Hungarian territory in a number of small states and that no provision has been made to protect the country from an intolerable situation is known here.

Although the intentions of the Supreme council in regard to the disposition of Hungary has not been made public the Hungarian leaders are informed that this would be a final resort to ward off the division of the country.

Washington, March 25—That the government expects that the supreme council will take immediate steps to counteract the trend of Bolshevism that is sweeping Europe was the opinion expressed here today.

But little news is being received from the affected countries and this is taken as a sign that the situation in many cases is extremely grave.

It is known that the Peace council are working at high pressure and that they expect to be able to announce that all the points that are in dispute can be cleared away at once so that an early peace may be signed.

for nationalism and the domination of all Hungarian races.

Basel, March 25—The Hungarian Commissioner for Military Affairs, says a Budapest dispatch, has issued an order instructing all soldiers to rejoin their units without delay.

"If the soldiers do not do their duty the Hungarian Soviet Republic is doomed," he adds. "The revolutionary Government requires armed discipline, and it will create an army well equipped and disciplined."

Count Karolyi, in taking farewell of the Derinkoy Cabinet on Sunday said:

"What has happened is a natural result of the blindness and ill-will with which it was sought to assassinate Hungary."

He said he would support the leaders of the people with all his strength and was willing to be a private soldier.

"I realized," he added, "that Hungary could be saved only by the international."

BOLSHEVIK ARMY PRESSES ON HUNGARY

YANKS LIKE HUN PHOTOS

Coblenz, March 25—German photographers in Coblenz recently have been doing the largest business in their careers, their principal customers being American soldiers. From two to five thousand Americans of units in districts beyond the Rhine and other parts of the occupied area visit Coblenz daily, the soldiers being allowed one day in the city every few weeks. Hundreds of these men have their photographs taken.

In their display windows the photographers have arranged the pictures of Americans on one side and likenesses of German civilians and soldiers on the other, always with a dividing line of some kind in between.

AN OLD RECIPE TO DARKEN HAIR

Sage Tea and Sulphur Turns Gray, Faded Hair Dark and Glossy.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked, or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients, at very little cost. Everybody uses this preparation now, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick, and glossy and you look years younger.

U. S. RANCHER MURDERED IN MEXICO

(By Associated Press)
Washington, March 25—The state department in a telegram today were informed that the body of Oscar Wallace was found near Progresso, Mexico and that he had been murdered.

Wallace was recently captured by Mexican bandits and was held by them for ransom. The state department then the United States ambassador to Mexico asked the Mexican government to make every effort to have Wallace released from the bandits and they informed the Ambassador that every effort would be made to locate the ranch foreman and free him.

It is apparent that the bandits becoming alarmed when the government troops were sent on their trail and killed the American to be rid of him.

DEATH THREAT FOR ORGANIZER TEXTILE UNION

Saco, March 25—A black hand letter threatening death to Organizer Horace J. Rivers of the United Textile Workers of America, who has been in this city since the strike began February 3, looking after the interests of the Union mill workers, was received by him Monday. The letter was mailed in Biddeford, March 21, and was as follows: "I am willing yet a few more to let you know that we want you to get out of town in 24 hours, and if you don't do so we will take you out in a wooden box." (Signed) from the Black Hand.

An evident attempt was made to disguise the handwriting as it resembled that of a school boy in the second grade. Mr. Rivers is not alarmed by the letter, and while the police officials have been notified they have been unable to find any clue that might lead to the identity of the sender.

TAKE SALT TO FLUSH KIDNEYS

Eat less meat if you feel Back-achy or have Bladder trouble.

Meat forms uric acid which excites and overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Regular intake of meat must flush the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them like you relieve your bowels; relieving all the acids, waste and poison also you feel a dull misty in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or back headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment; the channels often get irritated, obliging you to get up two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids and flush off the body's urinous waste get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act free and bladder disorders disappear. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to cleanse and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive; harmless and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then, thus avoiding serious kidney and bladder diseases.

K. C. MINSTRELS SHOW YANKS SOUTHERN FUN

Toul, France, March 25—Soldiers of the American Second Army and others who are here on leave crowded the Theatre Cimetière at the opening performance given there by the Knights of Columbus Overseas Minstrels, a troupe of 60 or more entertainers. Performances were given at Toul for a week and the theatre was filled to overflowing at nearly all the performances.

Carrying out a plan to give all the soldiers of the American Expeditionary Force an opportunity to see the show, the troupe was then divided into lesser units and these units made a circuit of camps and smaller centers in the Toul sector including Conflans, St. Mihiel and Pont-a-Mousson.

CZECH PREMIER HASN'T RESIGNED

Paris, March 25 (Havas)—The Paris newspapers print with reserve a German wireless message stating that Premier Kramarz and other members of the Czech-Slovak Cabinet have resigned.

Dr. Kramarz, who is in Paris in attendance at the Peace Conference, declares in an interview in the Matin that he knows nothing about any such resignations. He had no intention of abandoning his post, he said.

A Copenhagen dispatch received yesterday related a report received from Berlin that President Masarik of Czechoslovakia had resigned. No mention was made in his dispatch of any Cabinet resignations.

OH, RATS! OH, MICE! YEOUW! IT'S TERRIBLE!

The filling of the lot next to the Methodist church on Miller Avenue with rubbish has resulted in a mouse and rat nuisance. All the residents in the vicinity are having a terrible time in ridding their homes of mice. It is a panic from morning to night. There is a strike threatened by both the housekeepers and maids. The breed of mice is unusual. They can extract the cheese without disturbing the trip. They like good soft warm beds. In fact they are homey little devils and their number increases daily.

IN MEMORIAM.

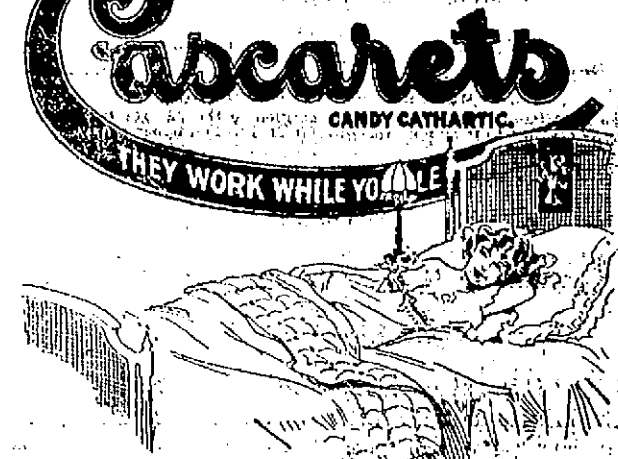

The community was deeply surprised and saddened on Sunday last by the death of Miss Annie M. Wilson, beloved wife of Edwin F. Wilson of North Ritty. She died peacefully at 10:30 Sunday morning, after a lingering illness of three months' duration. She bore her illness with quiet fortitude and gentle patience. Although unable to leave her bed she was ever solicitous of those of her acquaintances or friends whom she knew lay ill or convalescent.

The deceased was a daughter of the late Jefferson T. and Melissa A. Lewis. She was a student of the North Ritty schools attending the High School which was then known as Old Armory. After completing her schooling she taught for several terms being a most popular teacher.

In May 1885 she was wedded to Mr. Wilson who took his bride to the cozy home on the Post Road where they

Good Advice From a Veteran.

In an address at an entertainment for soldiers and sailors in New York last Sunday, Lieut. Col. Theodore Roosevelt, son of the late ex-President Roosevelt, spoke words that may well be heeded by the young men who are coming home from service in steadily increasing numbers, and when the khaki uniform is conspicuous in the streets of every city and town in the land. The speaker urged these men not to "let the hero business get stale" after receiving their discharges, but to secure jobs and get to work with as little delay as possible. Col. Roosevelt, who himself saw much service overseas, said he felt certain that the men who had taken part in the world war were returning with a determination to live lives of manliness and honor. With the armies disbanding these men now have the opportunity to resume their places or to make places for themselves in the affairs of every-day life, and this it is their duty to do as soon as practicable.

Of course, neither Colonel Roosevelt nor any one else contends that returned service men should not take time to visit their families, shake hands with their friends and tell something of their experiences on the battle fields of France. What the speaker meant was that if they stand around in uniform too long the novelty will wear off and the laurels they have earned will fade sooner than will be the case if they lay aside their uniform and take their places in the ranks of civic workers.

Colonel Roosevelt gives good advice when he tells the home-coming soldiers and sailors "not to let the hero business get stale." In giving it he does not mean that a man must not show himself in uniform after getting home. That uniform is something to be very proud of and the relatives and friends of those who wear it have a right to know how the country's defenders looked while doing the valiant work they did on foreign soil. But the work is done and without undue delay the service men should take their places in the ranks of business and industry, whether just such openings as they would like present themselves at once or not, and proceed to demonstrate that they can be as useful in peace as they were valiant in war. They need not fear that the honors they have won will ever fade. The wearing of the uniform is not necessary for the preservation of those honors.

The war is over, but the uniform will be conspicuous yet for a long time, for there are many more of its wearers still to return. And as they come they will be more cheered and encouraged to find the comrades who preceded them lined up with the workers in production than they would be to find them standing around in the garb of the terrible calling in which they are no longer engaged.

Another road to notoriety has been found for ambitious females. It is to get out and help strikers do picket duty. The discovery was made by a wealthy Massachusetts "up-lifter" who has been on duty at Lawrence for the last few days, with the result that her name is known all over the country, whereas it had never been heard of before outside of her own "bailiwick." Verily, this is a land of opportunity in more senses than one.

Chief Yeoman George Brownlee, who recently disappeared from the naval prison with more than $7,000 in stolen funds, was committed to the prison for fraudulent acts while in the service. And his performance here shows that kindness and confidence failed to produce the desired results in his case. But ultimately he will undoubtedly have cause to regret his abuse of that kindness and confidence.

Portsmouth is greatly interested in a number of measures to be acted upon by the Legislature at the end of the session draws near, and the people of the city, while realizing that they may not get all they are wishing for, are earnestly hoping for the best.

The famous Sistine Choir of Rome is to make a tour of the United States, beginning in May. Is it thought that something will be needed to soothe the nerves of the people after the Victory Loan drive?

The ranks are rapidly thinning at Fort Constitution and if discharges continue at the present rate all of the men will be gone in a few weeks. Every day brings new evidence that the war is over.

United States Senator Moses' readiness to do all in his power to secure suitable war trophies for the public parks of Portsmouth is appreciated by the people of the city. Success to his efforts!

"We have with us"—the robins and bluebirds. And all are ready to give them a most respectful and appreciative hearing.

EMERGENCY FLEET CORP. WILL PAY OFF WOODEN SHIP BUILDERS AND CLOSE YARDS

Washington, March 26.—Plans for winding up the Government's war venture in wooden ships were laid Tuesday at a conference between the Shipping Board and representatives of 34 yards in 13 states on the Atlantic and Gulf Coasts.

"Reasonable concessions" in payment of claims made for investments in yards as well as for canceled contracts were promised by Chairman Bailey and prompt settlement was assured. General Manager Pitz of the Emergency Fleet Corporation will be given authority today to close the Government's accounts with the builders, and no more contracts for wooden ships will be let.

With the Government's retirement from the wooden ship industry one of the developments of the National Emergency fleet virtually will be abandoned according to the builders.

Claims for losses due to the creation in a war measure of shipyards which now will have to be scrapped as worthless are expected to aggregate not more than $3,000,000. It has not been possible to estimate the amount necessary to settle contract claims, because inventories of expenditures for material and labor on ships which will not be completed have not been made. A total of more than $100,000,000 in contracts has been canceled, but in many instances work had not begun, so the amount to be paid by the Government will be correspondingly less. Satisfaction with the action of Chairman Hurley and his associates was expressed by representatives of the yards, who later at a separate meeting discussed plans for presenting their claims.

Each yard will act independently, as the Emergency Fleet Corporation will pass on each claim on its merits.

The shipbuilders were frank in stating that the decision of the Shipping Board to confine its future construction to steel vessels meant that at least 95 percent of the facilities for building wooden ships would be useless in the future. A total of 183 yards was represented at the meeting, nearly all of which will be abandoned or torn away to permit the use of the land for manufacturing and other purposes. Vessels now on the ways will not be completed, orders having been given to finish only the hulls, which probably will be used as barges. According to figures given at the meeting, there are now 170 wooden ships for which machinery is not available. They will be converted into barges or schooners.

It was this surplus of wooden hulls which caused some of the builders to assert that the industry was "criminated" for some time to come. Wooden ships, the builders said, admittedly cannot compete with steel vessels in general trade and the demand for barges apparently now is more than met. Possibility of building for foreign account, which is now prohibited, was not discussed at the meeting as an alternative to closing down the yards.

Answer to "Michiel R."

One would surmise that the "Opinion Column" was a free means of expressing one's opinions on different subjects.

At least I have thought so until last night when I glanced all over "Michiel R." masterpiece.

"Michiel, my dear man, your mind wanders in the sheepy 'day' yonder hill."

"They say a wise man in well read and a fool knows nothing; and of the Sub-Parliament League you are ignorant."

If you, dear Michiel, would estimate now on the total population of the world, between the ages of 18 to 60 (male), and compute their total industrial output, you would probably be surprised to find that it would not be necessary for each to work even six hours a day.

I believe that the platform of the M. T. E.'s Open Forum is open for anyone. Why do you not take "Ten hours, seven days" for a subject and "Entertain" us some Sunday?

Mr. Harry Hartford has often said that Portsmouth needs a "Paul Klier," and after reading your essay I gladly "second the motion."

Would also state for your benefit that leaders do not lead labor; nay, nay, labor makes and leads its leaders.

Also that when Organized Labor appeared before the "Macy Board" last year, and obtained an increase of wage for all ship yards and navy yards, unorganized labor reaped what organized labor did sow.

Bolshevism? You and I, dear Michiel, know not the meaning of the word. What would happen if every workman and woman in the world ceased to work, from now on?—Does not Labor then reign supreme?

Look up Labor's record in the Navy yard and then ask if it is intrusted in "home, country and traditions."

You deal so greatly in knowledge that I can hardly see why you should ask "what is the matter with our representatives?"

Would state that I consider myself a Patriot, and have seen service for my country, yet, also, am I a six-hour day man.

TRY TO COMBINE PEACE TREATY

(City Associated Press)

Paris, Tuesday, March 25.—A serious effort is being made to join together all the peace treaties with Germany, Austria, Turkey and Bulgaria, thus making one comprehensive treaty in which Germany will be linked with the other central powers.

American and British leaders here feel that it would save time in completing the work on all the peace treaties. The inclusion of Austria in a comprehensive treaty would be particularly acceptable to Italy which has resented the conclusion of terms with Germany in a document which failed to deal with Italy's interests in Austria.

MERCHANT IN HURRY TO HAVE STORE PAINTED

Just the exact position of a merchant doing his own repair work is the problem that is causing a certain Congress street shoe polishing parlor proprietor worry these days.

Long, long ago, maybe two moons or so, the shoeshine man contracted to have his place of business all renovated with a nice, new shiny coat of paint.

Long waited the merchant for the painter but the painter, under the impression that the job was not an urgent one, worked blithely away at his trade elsewhere.

Finally the merchant, perceiving that the paint was getting steadily less prosperous looking and the painter still miles away, he proceeded to start the job himself and worked diligently at the paint-up, clean-up job.

A traveling delegate from one of the labor organizations seeing the industrious work of the merchant, who was all bedecked with the customary painter's suit, stopped to talk with him. The organizer was under the impression that the amateur brush wielder was a union man and talked organized labor with him. The trade terms of the organizer were only mutterings to the Greek and he was further embarrassed by the appearance of the long lost painter.

No one knows how the matter was settled. It is not clear if the merchant joined the painters' union or if the painter hired in the first place will complete the job. The organizer's opinion of the matter is not available. Only this is known: That the shoeshine parlor is going to get its coat of paint right off. Everybody agrees to that.

The loss is estimated by insurance. Aid was sent from Halifax and other nearby cities. The fire started from the explosion of a boiler.

DEATH OF BEER BILL A SHOCK

After the optimism that has been so prevalent on the bill to have a light 3 per cent beer bill pass the legislature the killing of that same bill in the house yesterday came as a surprise to many of the people in this city.

Hope ran so high of the bill's passage.

Many hopes of the local brewers starting up in the old time way and furnishing employment for many men were dashed and the brewers are dark and gloomy today with prospects of their staying as far as that bill is concerned.

The days were jubilant over the killing of the bill and were loud in the praise of law makers.

Opinions from several prominent prohibition workers all unite in the common expression of satisfaction over the outcome. Its velvet for the "drys" and something else again for the "wets."

BASE BALL PROSPECTS EXCELLENT

With much enthusiasm for the national game shown in this city and the boys from the service that have started in the sunset league flocking back to the home town, prospects for the coming season are bright.

The shipyard and the navy yard has the same idea.

Marley button and Dale Shoe are talking of big doing on the diamond, while the P. A. C. have been laying plans for a winning campaign ever since the close of last season.

The Fort boys are practicing daily with an idea of stealing the baseball honors of the vicinity and several other organizations claim that they will have teams in the field that will make the best of the locals set up and take notice.

The early opening of the spring season is aiding the boys in working out and every day sees some battery candidates sneaking over a raw hot ones, and sending over a few twisters that will make batters, cross-eyed.

There is a wealth of good baseball material in Portsmouth and everybody is predicting the greatest season the old town has had in years.

PLANNING NEW TEXTILE UNION

Lawrence, March 26.—A. J. Minto of the textile strike committee announced yesterday that a new national union would be inaugurated here under the name of the Union of Textile Workers of America. The mill workers of Lawrence, he said, would be organized at once under the new union, offices for which would be opened the latter part of the week. Subsequently it is expected branches will be established and the operations organized in other cities.

Some days ago it was announced that the strikers would be used as a nucleus to form a new union throughout the country in opposition to the United Textile Workers, and it is thought that this is the outgrowth of that movement.

LIFT OFF CORNS!

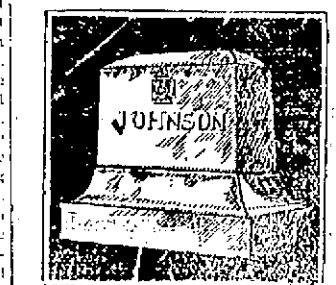

Apply few drops then lift sore, touchy corns off with fingers

Doesn't hurt a bit! Drop a little Frezone on an aching corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then you lift it right off. Yes, magic!

A tiny bottle of Frezone costs but a few cents at any drug store, but is sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the calluses, without soreness or irritation.

Frezone is the sensational discovery of a Cincinnati genius. It is wonderful.

You can save money by purchasing direct of the manufacturer. THREE MEN MAKE GET-AWAY FROM STATE HOSPITAL

Concord, March 25.—Three men escaped Monday night from the state hospital where they were under observation as possibly insane and are still at large. All of them were under state prison sentences, but none of them is considered a desperate character. The three are Lester Hall, Fred Davis and William Tiffany. They were missed shortly after supper at about 5:30 o'clock and it is estimated they had been gone 15 minutes when their absence was discovered.

Examination showed that they had got out by sawing through the iron bars of a window and from appearances the authorities are of the opinion that the work was done with a hacksaw which must have been smuggled into the building where they were concealed by some outsider.

Tiffany had served one year of a 10-years sentence for assault with intent to kill and was sent to the state prison from Cheshire county. Lester Hall was sent up from Grafton county on a charge of breaking and entering. His term would have expired in July. Fred Davis was sent up from Stratford county on a charge of breaking and entering. He is 40 years old, 5 feet 11 inches tall and weighs 160 pounds.

BIG EXHIBIT OF PEACE TIME MANUFACTURES

London, March 25.—British manufacturers made their best show this week to the merchants of the world through the fifth annual exposition of the British Industries Fair. The Pennington street house of the London Dock is filled with exhibits of china, glass, fancy goods, paper and toys from 670 factories, and it is expected these exhibits will be visited by thousands of merchants from all parts of the world.

It is a purely British institution, and none but British manufacturers are allowed to show their wares. The first purpose of the fair is to obtain business for British factories. All sorts of things are displayed, from the most expensive to the cheapest.

The toy section is a revelation. Once they said in Great Britain "German children make what British children break," but no more. It is to judge by the endless variety of toys shown in the fair. There are airplanes, rigid Zeppelins, automobiles, games by the dozen, whole families of dolls, fluffy dogs and china cats. In short, everything calculated to delight the child is there. Once about all the toys they had in England came from Germany. Even now some of them come from Japan.

Every buyer is the guest of the Board of Trade under whose direction the fair is held, and each one is treated with the utmost courtesy. Eighty thousand invitations were issued for the fair, and to the present the attendance has been all that the promoters expected. Last year's fair was successful to a marked degree, resulting in orders amounting to 1,000,000 pounds. This year, because of the incursions made on German trade, the business is expected to be even greater.

DOVER

Dover, March 25.—In the municipal court Tuesday morning one case was brought to the attention of Judge Nasson. After a lengthy debate Elias Dowdall was found guilty of keeping intoxicating liquor for sale. The respondent took an appeal from the decision, but subsequently withdrew it, paying a fine of $25 and costs, amounting to $12.10. At the termination of the case Assistant Marshal Murray placed Dowdall under arrest for the federal officers and in a short time Deputy U. S. Marshal Peter Smith arrived and took the prisoner to Concord, where he was arraigned before U. S. Commissioner Horus P. Hodman for an alleged violation of the Webb-Kenyon law.

Hon. James McCabe, who has had charge of the federal employment office on Third street, has consented to continue the service in this city. For the immediate future the work will be conducted at Judge McCabe's office No. 11 Bracewell block. Since the office on Third street was closed the many advantages of this bureau have been felt by both employer and employee.

NOTES OF INTEREST AMONG OUR COLORED NEIGHBORS.

The colored branch of the War Camp Community Service met Tuesday night March 25th, at 16 Market Square. The girls as usual were under the direction of Miss Smith, Miss Martha Kimball assisting. After singing patriotic and camp songs, and playing home games a short time was devoted to "over sea sewing." It was interesting to see many small children sewing seriously for the first time. Mrs. Henrietta Vergil, the appointed leader among the women, announced that Miss Mignon King age 4 years old did the best sewing of the evening.

Miss Mignon received many congratulations from her little girl friends. Mrs. Smith will be pleased to meet the girls Wednesday evening of this week, March 26th, at 16 Market Square 7:30 P. M.

To those interested in the development of this social work started among the colored people of this city, will be a mixed board of directors to you may be pleased to know that they steer the affairs of the movement. The white members of the board are Mrs. Mary L. Wood, Mrs. Helen R. Thayer, Miss Martha Kimball and Mrs. Corilla Matthews of the Plymouth Savings Bank. The colored members' names will be published as soon as we officially hear from the People's Baptist Church and the Sunday School of that church from each of whom has been requested a representative. As soon as the board is completed and the rooms turned over to the War Camp authorities with the installation of music and other forms of amusements these rooms must eventually become the social center of the community.

To the colored people of this community there are some mistakes you cannot afford to make. It matters not who tells you to the contrary, if you sever the finger vein you will die. There are other means by which the issues of life are vouchsafed. If you sever these vital relations you will give up the life you enjoy by virtue of the existence of that relation. You are hereby warned to be wise enough to let no false teachings disturb the peaceful relations existing between us and our good white friends of this community. They are willing to come closer than ever before, so as to be of more vital service to you. If you fail to appreciate their desire to help you now, when you call in distress in the future, it will rightfully be denied.

DANIELS GIVES BREST PRAISE

Brest, March 25.—Secretary Daniels, after his investigation of camp conditions at Brest, gave The Associated Press the following statement:

"I have spent a portion of two rainy days in the camp at Pontonneux and it rains 330 days out of the year here. I have seen more than 50,000 American troops encamped here waiting for embarkation home and have conferred with scores of officers and many men just from the front.

"This morning I walked for miles on a solid board walk from tent to tent in which the machines are quartered and in the wooden barracks where the soldiers sleep. I visited the modern kitchen and dining rooms and saw where dinner for 5000 men was prepared in one of the 12 kitchens. This large number is fed in 40 minutes and just as many are fed in the 41 other kitchens.

"I sat upon the beds of the soldiers and ate my mid-day meal with them. The meal was well cooked, palatable and plentiful and tasted as good as any meal I ever ate in my life. The mid-day consisted of a large helping of roast beef, mashed potatoes, stewed carrots, rich meat gravy, bread pudding with raisins, two large slices of white bread and a large cup of coffee.

AT THE

D. F. BORTHWICK STORE

There is nothing more exasperating than to be unable to find your book or magazine when you want it. You simply know you left it in a certain spot, and it isn't there when you go to look for it. The trouble is; there is no special place for books—that is, unless you have one of these serviceable little stands in your home, which is especially for the current reading of the household. It's a temper-saver, that's certain.

These little "Imperial" stands are made by the Imperial Furniture Company. And let us tell you that one of their tables was destined for more than ordinary use when it left the factory. The furnishings of the President's private cabin on board the George Washington in which he crossed to Europe were carried out in Colonial style, and a principal article of furniture was the Imperial desk table, which is a careful reproduction of George Washington's own desk. President Wilson put in many hours daily at this desk on the way over, in work preparatory to the problems of the peace conference.

These same people make wonderful library tables, tea wagons, plant stands and many other lovely things—we have these, which would fit in many a corner of your home and give just the right "homey" look.

PORTSMOUTH FIREMEN ENTERTAIN YORK BROTHERS

The local Fire Department certainly out-did themselves in their entertainment last evening. The visiting York, Me. firemen were sure that they never in their lives were entertained so royally and they were loud in their praises of the Portsmouth fire fighters' hospitality.

The Portsmouth men admit that it was some party and that they are sure that the visiting aggregation were not at all homesick.

From soup to nuts the banquet was carried off without a hitch and the "feed" provided for the occasion was as tasty a meal as ever the firemen sat down to.

Speeches were on tap, good, live, spontaneous speeches of good fellowship sort sparkling with wit and fun, and with words of helpfulness the men that spoke had a good clear message that gave pleasure to the large gathering.

A regular Broadway show was put on too, cabaret numbers followed each other thick and fast. Each act was a headliner, and it would puzzle a dramatic critic to pick the star turn of the evening.

Chief Woods of the local firemen welcomed the visitors and Chief Newell of York responded gracefully.

Mayor Hislop made the principal address of the evening. Councilman Deane and Dunn gave fine talks to the company, and W. M. J. Nevels was awarded much applause.

The supper was an elaborate affair and the following were on the menu: Oranges, scalloped oysters, chicken, lobster and fruit salads, mashed potatoes, rolls, coffee, cake, ice cream, cheese and cigars.

Union Rebekah Lodge certainly understood putting on a fine "feed," say the firemen from York and Portsmouth. Singing by the entire company was a feature of the evening and a quartet of soldiers and sailors gave a most pleasing rendition of the popular war songs.

Several of the members of the local department rendered songs that were heartily applauded.

About 160 people sat down to supper, 12 of whom were York guests.

The York men departed at a late hour for home in automobiles and they cheered the local aggregation heartily as they rolled up Congress street.

The Portsmouth firemen are to be congratulated on securing such fine entertainment.

All the girls were not only beautiful but had big time acts and the blackface comedian was a live wire entertainer.
